PRESS RELEASE

Katahdin Trust Company and Maine Financial Group Move to New Facilities

SCARBOROUGH, ME – Jon Prescott, President and CEO of Katahdin Trust Company, has announced the relocation of its Scarborough Commercial Loan Office to more spacious and comfortable facilities at 144 U.S. Route One, directly off I-295. This office is home to both the commercial lending office for Katahdin Trust Company as well as Maine Financial Group which operates as a loan production office of the Bank.

Prescott said, "We're excited about this new location as it provides customers greater privacy for conducting business, as well as a conference room and enhanced customer waiting area." He also stated that to complement the Bank's commercial lending services, plans are to offer teller and night deposit services along with a full array of deposit services at this location later in 2013.

"As always, Katahdin Trust Company is diligently working to enhance the experience of all our customers," Prescott explained. "We look forward to better serving our customers from this new location and to expanding our service availability as the year progresses."

Katahdin Trust Company, with roots dating back to 1918, has nearly $580 million in assets, provides banking services to individuals and businesses from seventeen offices in northern and central Maine, online at katahdintrust.com, and operates a commercial loan office in Scarborough. Katahdin Trust Company recently received the Preferred Lender designation by the U. S. Small Business Administration and has been recognized for six consecutive years as one of the Top 200 Community Banks in the country by American Banker magazine. Stock is quoted on the OTC Markets quote board OTCQB under the symbol KTHN. Current stock information can be found at otcmarkets.com.
