"Scott joined Maine Financial Group in 2011 and we are pleased to have him assume these additional responsibilities, following the retirement earlier this year of Walter Purda who had served as President of the Company," said St. John. "His years of experience in the heavy equipment financing industry continue to be a tremendous asset in his role as Vice President at Maine Financial Group."

Maine Financial Group operates as a loan production office of Katahdin Trust Company providing equipment financing for individuals and businesses in the forestry, construction, transportation, and marine industries throughout northern New England, primarily in Maine and New Hampshire.

Dillon graduated from Brookville Area High School in Brookville, PA and received his B.S. in Communications from Clarion University of Pennsylvania. He has extensive experience in heavy equipment lending, serving in executive positions with Direct Capital Corporation in Portsmouth, NH, Usource in Hampton, NH, and Harbour Capital Corporation in Newington, NH and most recently with DM Funding Group, LLC and Thompson/ Center Arms, both in Rochester, NH.

Dillon and his wife Karla have two children Caroline and Cameron.
