Branch Manager & RSO

Katahdin Trust recently announced the planned opening of a full-service branch in downtown Fort Kent, providing area residents and small business owners a new choice when it comes to banking. With the opening of this new branch, Katahdin Trust brings nearly a century of service to the area and solidifies the Bank’s commitment in becoming the bank you can trust for community banking at its best.

“Our customers will be well-served by Angela’s presence, experience and abilities,” said Jon Prescott, President & CEO of Katahdin Trust. “We certainly invite friends and customers, old and new, to continue their working relationship with her as part of Katahdin Trust.” In the meantime, those interested in opening a new account with Katahdin Trust can contact the Eagle Lake office at 444-5543.

Mrs. Franck has over twenty years of banking experience, most recently as Branch Manager at The Bank of Maine in Fort Kent since 2003. A graduate of Presque Isle High School, Mrs. Franck attended the Northern New England School of Banking held in Durham, New Hampshire and has received several diplomas and certificates through the Northern New England Center for Financial Training. In 2006, she received the America’s Promise Volunteer Award from Maine Bankers Association. Mrs. Franck has formerly served on the Board of Directors and as Vice President for the Greater Fort Kent Area Chamber of Commerce and as Secretary for the St. Agatha Recreation Department.

Mrs. Franck resides in St. Agatha with her husband Craig and three children; Kyle, Corey and Brooke.
