AMABILE AND MCCARTHY BOTH PROMOTED TO ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT AT MAINE FINANCIAL GROUP

Scarborough, ME (March 6, 2014) - Maine Financial Group President Scott Dillon recently announced the promotion of both Jim Amabile and Sue McCarthy to Assistant Vice President and Commercial Services Officer at Maine Financial Group.

Amabile

In making the announcement Dillon said, "Over the past few years, Jim and Sue's roles have expanded significantly and these well-deserved promotions are a reflection of their outstanding abilities, strong work ethic, and commitment to service excellence."

Mr. Amabile joined Maine Financial Group in 1998 as Loan Officer, and in 2007 was named Commercial Services Officer. He is a graduate of the University of Southern Maine in Portland with a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration with a minor in Economics. A Portland native, Amabile resides in Gorham with his wife Lynn Lamson.

Ms. McCarthy joined Maine Financial Group in 1993 as an Administrative Assistant, was later promoted to Officer Manager, named Commercial Services Specialist in 2007, and was promoted to Commercial Services Officer in 2012. She is a graduate of Northern Maine Community College (NMCC) with dual degrees in Small Computers and Business, earned in 1985 and 1986, respectively. Upon graduation from NMCC she moved to southern Maine where she has been active in civic endeavors. She has served in officer roles for her condo association, refereed youth basketball and assisted senior citizens in the community with daily errands and meals. A Mattawamkeag native, McCarthy currently resides in Biddeford, Maine.
