Roberts Joins Katahdin Trust as Vice President, Business Development Officer

Bangor, ME (December 1, 2014) - Citing her long history of banking experience in the Bangor area, Jon Prescott, President and CEO of Katahdin Trust Company, announced today the appointment of Sherry Roberts as Vice President, Business Development Officer. Roberts will be responsible for business development for small business, commercial and non-profit entities in the greater Bangor area.

“We are pleased to have Sherry join us,” said Prescott. “With 23 years of banking experience in the Bangor market we believe she will be a tremendous asset in her new position at Katahdin Trust. Sherry has earned a well-deserved reputation for customer service excellence and her expertise in cash management systems for business customers will make her a true asset to our Bank.”

Sherry Roberts

Roberts began her banking career with Bangor Savings in 1991 (then known as Fleet Bank of Maine). In 1996 she was promoted to Branch Operations Supervisor and transitioned to the role of Branch Manager in 2001. In 2004 Roberts was promoted to the position of Assistant Vice President and Business Banking Officer and was promoted again in 2007 to Vice President/Treasury and Payment Services Officer, the position she held prior to joining Katahdin Trust.

Active in the community, Roberts has served on the Boards of Directors for the EMMC Auxiliary and Lincoln Lakes Regional Economic Development and has also volunteered for United Way of Eastern Maine, KidCare America, Grief Share Support Group, Teen Challenge, and 4-H of Maine. In 2010 she was awarded the Customer Excellence Achievement Award for the high level of customer service given to her clients at Bangor Savings Bank.

Roberts resides in Hermon with her husband Don.
