Bill Lucy Joins Katahdin Trust

Orono native with 35 years in banking joins Commercial Services Division

BANGOR, ME – William P. “Bill” Lucy has joined Katahdin Trust Company. The 35-year banking veteran comes on board as Senior Vice President, Commercial Services with responsibilities for business lending and development in the greater Bangor area. He will also serve as a member of the Bank’s senior management team.

Bill moves to Katahdin Trust after spending more than 20 years at People’s United Bank and Merrill Merchants Bank, serving most recently as Senior Vice President and Market President in Bangor. Prior to Merrill Merchants, Bill spent more than a decade at Merrill Trust Company and its successors, starting as a management trainee and working his way up to serve in a variety of management positions.

“I am delighted to be joining Katahdin Trust,” said Bill. “The bank has a rich history of serving the people of Maine. I identify with its community banking ideals and customer focus.”

“Bill’s reputation and banking knowledge and know-how will be a tremendous asset to Katahdin Trust,” said Jon Prescott, President & CEO. “We are committed to helping businesses throughout Maine grow and prosper and Bill Lucy knows how to do that and more. Adding Bill to our team strengthens our ability to serve our customers in the best possible way. We are excited to have Bill join us.”

Outside of banking, Bill is a well-respected member of the community, serving as Chairman of the Board of St. Joseph Healthcare, and on the Board of Covenant Health Systems, which is the sponsor of St. Joseph Hospital in Bangor and St. Mary’s Hospital in Lewiston. Bill also serves as Board President for Katahdin Area Council, Boy Scouts of America and has served as a board member for Penobscot Community Health Care, Bangor Symphony Orchestra, and as Board President of the Bangor YMCA.

Bill is married to his wife of 31-years, Lorilyn. Together, they have four adult daughters. The Lucys currently reside on Verona Island.
