Angela Butler Joins Katahdin Trust

Longtime banker in Bangor area joins Commercial Services Team

BANGOR, ME – Angela T. Butler has joined Katahdin Trust Company as Senior Vice President, Commercial Services Officer. Based at the Bank’s Springer Drive location, she will be responsible for business lending and development in the greater Bangor area.

She joins Katahdin Trust after spending more than 22 years at People’s United Bank and Merrill Bank, most recently serving as Senior Vice President, Commercial Banking Region Manager in Bangor. Angela began her banking career with Fleet Bank in Providence, Rhode Island as Corporate Credit Management Trainee. In 1994, she joined Merrill Bank as a Credit Analyst and was promoted to Vice President, Commercial Loan Officer in 1997. Following the acquisition of Merrill Bank by People’s United Bank in 2010, she was named Senior Vice President and Commercial Loan Team Leader.

“For years, Angela has earned a well-deserved reputation for commercial lending excellence in Bangor,” said Peter St. John, Executive Vice President, Commercial Services. “We look forward to her wealth of business banking expertise and knowledge that she will bring to our Bank as we continue to develop and grow our relationships with small businesses throughout central Maine.”

Outside of banking, Angela is an active member of the community and currently serves on the board for Bangor Children’s Home, BanAir Corporation, and Community Health & Counseling Services.

Angela resides in Bangor with her husband, Paul, and three children, Mary, Katie and Tommy.
