John Quesnel joins Katahdin Trust

Hampden, ME - John Quesnel has joined Katahdin Trust as Vice President, Managed Assets Officer. Based at the Bank's Hampden office, he will be responsible for managing and directing the collection activity for all retail and commercial loan accounts.

"We are pleased to welcome John to Katahdin Trust," said Peter St. John, Executive Vice President, Commercial Services of Katahdin Trust. "His proven business leadership and 22 years of lending and credit control experience will definitely serve the Bank well."

John graduated from Albertus Magnus College in New Haven, Connecticut attaining his Master of Business Administration. He also attended the Northern New England School of Banking in Durham, New Hampshire. John started his banking career in 1982. In 1994 he began working as Mortgage Marketing Officer with People's United Bank in Bridgeport, Connecticut. In 1998 he began a nearly 13 year span in the Managed Assets area serving as Portfolio Manager with Clayton National, Inc. in Connecticut; Assistant Vice President, Special Assets Officer with Camden National Bank; and Vice President, Special Assets Officer with First National Bank. In 2011 he joined People's United Bank in Bangor as Vice President, Business Banker, the position he held prior to joining Katahdin Trust.

John is actively involved in the community and currently serves as President of the Hampden Water District Board of Trustees, Vice President of the Lions Club in Bangor, and is a member of the Spruce Run-Womancare Alliance Finance Committee and Hampden Business Association Steering Committee.

He resides in Hampden with his wife Bonnie and their daughter.
