Katahdin Trust Promotes Kate Goodwin & Sarah Silliboy

Houlton, ME – Katahdin Trust President & CEO, Jon J. Prescott, recently announced the promotions of two of the Bank's Officers. Kate Goodwin was named Project Manager and Sarah Silliboy was appointed to BSA Officer.

"We're pleased to promote these two hard-working professionals. Kate and Sarah each play a vital role within the Bank and are tremendous assets to Katahdin Trust," said Prescott. "Kate's goal will be to increase the Bank's overall productivity and profitability, while Sarah will remain diligent in our efforts to remain compliant in all areas of the banking industry."

Kate Goodwin

Kate began her career with Katahdin Trust in 2010 as a Bank Secrecy Act (BSA)/Compliance Assistant at the Caribou Branch. She was promoted to a BSA Manager in 2012 and to BSA Officer in 2013, the position she held until her most recent appointment. Kate's new responsibilities include working closely with Senior Management as well as department heads and vendors to assist in delivering every project on time, within budget and within scope.

A native of Durham, North Carolina, Kate holds a Bachelor's Degree from the University of North Carolina – Greensboro. Active within her community, she is the Head Official for Aroostook Roller Derby. Kate resides in Caribou with her daughter.

Sarah Silliboy

Sarah joined Katahdin Trust as a Part-time Proof/Computer Operator in 2003 and served in a variety of positions in the Operations area until transferring to Electronic Banking in 2006. She was named Supervisor of the Electronic Banking Department in 2011 and was promoted to Assistant Vice President, Electronic Banking Manager in 2013. Her new responsibilities will include implementing and monitoring all aspects of BSA to ensure that each functional area of the Bank achieves and maintains compliance with all Bank Secrecy Act/Anti-Money Laundering (BSA/AML) laws and banking regulations.

A graduate of Houlton High School, Sarah attained her Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and Business Management from the University of Maine at Presque Isle, attended the Northern New England School of Banking in Durham, New Hampshire, and is an Accredited ACH Professional. She has earned her BSA and AML Compliance Certificate through the American Bankers Association and various diplomas and certificates from the Center for Financial Training and Education Alliance. Active in her local community, she is the Co-Chair of the Mill Pond School PTO as well as a Girl Scout Troop Leader. Sarah resides in Hodgdon with her husband Ron and daughter, Mariah.
