Katahdin Trust Supports RSU #39 Caribou School K-8 Gym Project

Caribou, ME – Katahdin Trust Company was pleased to present a $5,000 contribution toward the RSU #39 Caribou School gym project on March 20, 2017 to members of the Friends of Caribou Schools. “Serving the needs of Aroostook County communities is something we’ve been doing for almost 100 years,” shares Peggy Smith, Assistant Vice President, Caribou branch manager. “Our branch in Caribou has been open for 22 years and many of our staff members’ and customers’ children attended the Caribou school system. Katahdin Trust is so pleased to be part of this effort.”

Several students stopped by to help accept the donation, including younger children who will benefit from the new facility. “As you can see by their faces, they are excited about their new school!” says Smith. On hand for the check presentation left to right front row: Kacie Haney, Marshall Hersey, Riley Rossignol, Gracie Rossignol, Trent Hersey, and Lauren Craig. Back row: Smith; Craig Staples, Vice President, Commercial Services Officer, Katahdin Trust; Bob White, Friends of Caribou Schools; and Sam Collins, co-chair, Friends of Caribou Schools.
