John Frohock joins Katahdin Trust

Hampden, ME - John Frohock has joined Katahdin Trust as Vice President, Managed Assets Officer. Based at the Bank's Hampden office, he will be responsible for managing and directing the collection activity for all retail and commercial loan accounts.

"We are pleased to welcome John to Katahdin Trust," said Peter St. John, Executive Vice President, Commercial Services of Katahdin Trust. "He has over 35 years of experience in commercial and consumer collections, lending and retail banking. John's depth of experience will serve the Bank well."

John graduated from Bentley University in Waltham, Massachusetts with a Bachelor of Science Degree in General Business. His extensive career includes positions with the FDIC (Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation) in liquidation and bank closings as well as 10 years with Camden National Bank as Vice President, Special Assets Division. Most recently, John has served as Consultant, Loan Review Services with M and M Consulting in Massachusetts.

John is looking forward to relocating to Maine and being active in the greater Bangor community.
