Katahdin Trust Promotes Allissa Given to Patten Branch Manager

Patten, ME – Allissa Given has been promoted to Branch Manager and Retail Services Officer of Katahdin Trust’s branch office in Patten. She will be responsible for the day-to-day management of activities at the Patten branch, sales and business development, and retail lending.

Allissa started with Katahdin Trust in 2006 and most recently held the title of Customer Service Representative and consumer lender. “With the recent retirement of branch manager Emily Hosford, Allissa has done a great job serving as the interim branch manager for the last several months,” shares Bonnie Foster, Katahdin Trust Senior Vice President, Retail Services. “Our customers and employees are in very capable hands.”

In her 11 years with Katahdin Trust, Allissa has completed several banking courses in banking law, consumer and mortgage lending, and deposit accounts and services, among others.

Allissa and her husband Kris reside in Island Falls and have three children.
