Maine Financial Group Promotes Jim Amabile and Sue McCarthy

Scarborough, ME - Maine Financial Group President Scott Dillon recently announced the promotion of both Jim Amabile and Sue McCarthy to Vice President at Maine Financial Group.

“I was very pleased to share this announcement during our Employee Appreciation Night in October,” shares Dillon. “These well-deserved promotions are a reflection of Jim and Sue’s outstanding abilities, strong work ethic, and commitment to service excellence.”

Jim Amabile

Amabile joined Maine Financial Group in 1998 as Loan Officer, and in 2007 was named Commercial Services Officer. In 2014 he was promoted to Assistant Vice President. He is a graduate of the University of Southern Maine in Portland with a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration with a minor in Economics. A Portland native, Amabile resides in Gorham, Maine with his wife Lynn Lamson.

Sue McCarthy

McCarthy joined Maine Financial Group in 1993 as an Administrative Assistant, was later promoted to Officer Manager, named Commercial Services Specialist in 2007, promoted to Commercial Services Officer in 2012 and then as Assistant Vice President in 2014. Upon graduation from Northern Maine Community College she moved to southern Maine where she has been active in civic endeavors in various capacities. A Mattawamkeag native, McCarthy currently resides in Biddeford, Maine.

Maine Financial Group operates as a loan production office of Katahdin Trust Company providing equipment financing for individuals and businesses in the forestry, construction, transportation, and marine industries throughout northern New England, primarily in Maine and New Hampshire.
