Katahdin Trust Promotes Cindy Boot to Commercial Services Officer

PRESQUE ISLE, ME – Katahdin Trust recently announced the promotion of Cindy Boot to Commercial Services Officer. Based at the Bank’s Presque Isle location, she will continue to oversee the Bank’s dealer floor plan portfolio with added responsibility of business lending and development in central and northern Aroostook County.

“Cindy has been with Katahdin Trust for 15 years,” shares David Cambridge, Senior Vice President, Commercial Services Officer at Katahdin Trust. “She is a dedicated professional who has worked hard to grow our relationships with our customers, particularly our small business clientele. Cindy is a valuable member of our team and is most deserving of this promotion.”

Cindy began her career with Katahdin Trust in 2002 as a Teller. In 2004 she transferred to the Commercial Services Department as a Commercial Services Assistant, a position she held until 2015 when she was promoted to Commercial Services Specialist.

Cindy has earned several diplomas and certificates from the Center for Financial Training, including Banking Business and Commercial Lending, Bank Operations, Advanced Financial Services, and Small Business Banking Certificate. She has also completed the Young Professionals Institute at University of Maine Presque Isle and the Northern New England School of Banking in Durham, New Hampshire.

Cindy is active in her community, including recently serving as the Washburn August Festival Committee Chairman from 2009-2015. She resides in Washburn with her husband Keith and son, Adam.
