

Katahdin Trust announces hire of Jamie Haining to Business Development Officer

HAMPDEN, ME (April 18, 2018): Bonnie Foster, Executive Vice President of Retail Services for Katahdin Trust has announced the hire of Jamie Haining to Vice President, Business Development Officer. Based from the Bank’s Hampden branch, Haining will be responsible for business development of all types with a concentration on deposit services for small business, commercial and non-profit entities in the greater Bangor area.

“We are very pleased to have Jamie join our team of business development officers,” shares Foster. “She comes with over twelve years of banking experience and an excellent understanding of the products and services needed by businesses in this region. Katahdin Trust is very fortunate to have her as part of our team.”

Haining began her banking career in 2006 in the Treasury & Payment Services Department of Bangor Savings Bank providing support for clients with cash management needs. She continued to expand her leadership roles and banking knowledge with over five years in Merchant Services and most recently as Vice President, Buoy Local Sales Lead for Bangor Savings Bank.

Haining is currently pursuing her Bachelor of Business Administration from Husson University. She received her accreditation as an Automated Clearing House (ACH) Professional in 2011 and obtained her Electronic Transaction Association Certified Payments Professional designation in 2016.

Active in the local community, she volunteers her time as a youth cheerleading coach in the RSU 19 school district and has served on the recreation and bicentennial committees for the Town of Newport. She previously served as an executive board member for Bangor Area Junior Achievement.

Jamie lives in Palmyra with her husband, James and their three children; Andrew, Amber and Atticus.
