

Katahdin Trust Recognizes Employees for Years of Service

Thirty-two employees celebrate a combined 470 years of community banking

HOULTON, ME (June 6, 2018) - Katahdin Trust recently held a special employee appreciation event to recognize several employees who reached a milestone anniversary with the bank ranging from five to thirty-five years of service.

“Our employees are what make Katahdin Trust unique and define our brand of banking, exceeding our customers’ expectations every day,” explains Jon J. Prescott, Katahdin Trust President & CEO. “It’s important to thank these employees for their dedication and contributions they have made to make our bank the successful company it is today.”
