Houlton, ME (March 27, 2018) –To mark the occasion of its 100th anniversary, Katahdin Trust held a five-day bank-wide celebration in March. Hundreds of customers and community members stopped by to enjoy refreshments, special anniversary giveaways, and enter to win the daily drawing including a $1,000 grand prize.

“We want to thank everyone who participated in our celebration,” says Krista Putnam, Katahdin Trust Vice President, Marketing. “Nearly 80 community members received a door prize and hundreds more enjoyed giveaways and goodies all week long. We are very pleased to announce that Michael Barker from Washburn was the winner of our $1,000 grand prize.”

“It was a lot of fun to make the call to Michael,” shares Joe Clukey, Assistant Vice President & Retail Services Officer. “He didn’t know whether to believe me at first. It made our day knowing we made his!”

The 100th anniversary celebration will continue with special events and surprises all year long. “You only turn 100 once and we are making the most of it,” remarks Putnam. “We really do believe the best is yet to come and we are making the most of this historic achievement!”
