

Katahdin Trust Promotes Rebecca Potter to Commercial Services Officer

BANGOR, ME (April 4, 2018) – William Lucy, Executive Vice President, Commercial Services for Katahdin Trust recently announced the promotion of Rebecca Potter to Commercial Services Officer. Based at the Bank’s Bangor location at 52 Springer Drive, she will be responsible for business lending and development in the greater Bangor area.

“Rebecca’s dedication and commitment to growing our relationships with small businesses has made her a valuable part of our team,” says Lucy. “She has worked extremely hard and most certainly earned this promotion. It is an honor to recognize her accomplishments with this promotion.”

Rebecca started her career with Katahdin Trust in 2008 as a Commercial Services Assistant. In 2012 she worked as a Customer Service Representative before returning to her role as Commercial Services Assistant in 2013, the position she has held since this recent promotion.

Rebecca has earned the Risk Management Association (RMA) Small Business Financial Statement and Cash Flow Analysis Certificate as well as the Accounting Basics Certificate.

She has taken several courses from the Center for Financial Training toward her Commercial Lending Diploma. She is active in her community, currently serving as a board member of the Eastern Maine Medical Center Auxiliary.

A native of Hermon, Rebecca now resides in Carmel with her husband Eric, daughter Gabrielle and son Griffin.
