

Katahdin Trust Sponsors New Ventures Maine's "Business Basics"

Portland Class Supports Budding Entrepreneurs

Portland, ME (4/10/19) – Katahdin Trust, a community bank serving northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions recently sponsored New Ventures Maine's Business Basics Class in Portland. The three part course covers the basics of creating a business plan, marketing, cash planning and more.

"Providing education on financial literacy topics has always been a priority for Katahdin Trust," Krista Putnam, Senior Vice President of Marketing. "We are proud to sponsor an effort that helps young entrepreneurs fulfill their dreams of owning their own business."

In addition to the Bank's monetary donation, Vicki Bessette, Vice President, Commercial Services Officer in Scarborough was a guest speaker at one class. She shared with students the importance of developing a relationship with their financial institution and what information a loan officer needs in order to make a decision about approving a loan.

"We are so grateful to Katahdin Trust for their generous sponsorship of our Business Basics class," said Gigi Guyton, New Ventures Maine Regional Manager, Microbusiness Specialist in Portland. It is so important for budding entrepreneurs to assess the feasibility, viability, and desirability of a business idea before launching. We are in our 40th year of providing tuition-free business classes and workshops for all Maine people, thanks to supportive sponsorships like this one from Katahdin Trust."
