

Karyn MacLeod Joins Katahdin Trust as Commercial Services Officer in Greater Portland

SCARBOROUGH, ME (06/12/2019) – Katahdin Trust, a full-service community bank founded in 1918, is pleased to announce and welcome Karyn MacLeod as Vice President, Commercial Services Officer.

“The Bank is extremely pleased to have Karyn join our seasoned team of commercial and business development officers in greater Portland,” said Bill Lucy, Executive Vice President of Commercial Services for Katahdin Trust. “As we continue to expand our presence in southern Maine, our current and future customers will benefit from Karyn’s expertise and excellent understanding of the financial products and services needed by businesses in that region.”

Karyn will be based out of the Bank’s Scarborough branch located at 144 US Route One in Scarborough, the Bank’s most southern of its sixteen locations which offers a full array of checking, savings, and loan products and services to both individuals and businesses.

Responsible for business lending and development, Karyn will work closely with her customers to offer personalized solutions for their banking needs. “It is the type of community banking that Katahdin Trust is known for in Maine,” explains Lucy.

Karyn is well-known in the financial services industry with 22 years of experience. She began her banking career in 1997 in Virginia Beach, Virginia. Most recently she served at Bangor Savings Bank in Portland as Vice President, Commercial Relationship Manager and prior to that as Vice President, Branch Manager. Earlier in her career, Karyn was the Vice President, Business Development and Sales Manager for TD BankNorth in Portland.

Karyn earned her degree from Radford University in Radford, Virginia. She is a resident of Scarborough where she lives with her husband Michael and their three children.

Karyn MacLeod has joined as Vice President, Commercial Services Officer in Scarborough.
