

Billi Griffeth promoted to Regional Vice President of Katahdin Trust’s Northern Market

HOULTON, Maine (November 21, 2019) – Katahdin Trust Company is pleased to announce the promotion of Billi Griffeth to Regional Vice President. Based out of Presque Isle, Billi will oversee the Bank’s northern Maine branch network ranging from Patten to Fort Kent.

“Billi has held positions of increasing responsibility while developing a strong background in retail banking,” said Bonnie Foster, Executive Vice President, Retail Services. “Billi is an integral part of the retail team and I am pleased to announce her promotion.”

Billi joined Katahdin Trust’s Training Department in 2011, was named retail officer in 2015, and promoted to her most recent position of Assistant Vice President, Retail Services in 2017. In her new role, she will continue to serve as program manager for Katahdin Financial Services (a service of Cetera Investment Services LLC, a registered broker-dealer and unaffiliated with Katahdin Trust Company).

Billi Griffeth, Regional Vice President

Billi grew up in Presque Isle and is very active in her community, serving on the Young Professionals Institute (YPI) Steering Committee and Presque Isle Regional Career and Technical Center’s Business Community Advisory Board. She is also a member of Going Places Network (GPN). Billi resides in Presque Isle with her husband, Joel, and three children.
