

Katahdin Trust Welcomes Justin Jamison, Vice President, Commercial Services Officer

BANGOR, Maine (December 9, 2019) – Katahdin Trust Company, a community bank founded in 1918 serving northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions, is pleased to welcome Justin Jamison as Vice President, Commercial Services Officer.

In this role, Justin will be based at 52 Springer Drive in Bangor and be responsible for developing and managing new and existing business lending relationships for the Bank. He will work closely with the commercial services team statewide to offer Katahdin Trust customers a comprehensive banking relationship tailored to their business. Justin will also assist with risk analysis, monitoring and managing identified risks in the loan portfolio.

“We’re excited that Justin has joined our dedicated team of commercial services officers here at Katahdin Trust,” said William “Bill” Lucy, Executive Vice President, Commercial Services. “Justin puts the customer first and is committed to developing a relationship with customized solutions. His values seamlessly align with ours in what makes Katahdin Trust a true community bank.”
