

Rebecca Potter promoted to Assistant Vice President, Commercial Services Officer

BANGOR, Maine (June 22, 2020) – Katahdin Trust is proud to announce the recent promotion of Rebecca Potter to Assistant Vice President, Commercial Services Officer. Based out of the Bank’s Bangor location at 52 Springer Drive, she is responsible for business lending and development in the greater Bangor area.

“Rebecca’s ability to provide superior customer service and a commitment to growing our business relationships make her a valuable member of our team,” said William Lucy, Executive Vice President, Commercial Services, Katahdin Trust. “Rebecca has been with us for over a decade and through hard work and dedication to her customers and our Bank, she has earned this promotion.”

Rebecca started her career with Katahdin Trust in 2008 as a Commercial Services Assistant. In 2012, she worked as a Customer Service Representative before returning to her role as Commercial Services Assistant in 2013. In 2018, Rebecca was promoted to Commercial Services Officer, the position she’s held until this recent promotion.

Rebecca has obtained the Risk Management Association (RMA) Small Business Financial Statement and Cash Flow Analysis Certificate as well as the Accounting Basics Certificate. She has taken several courses from the Center for Financial Training toward her Commercial Lending Diploma. Rebecca received a certificate of completion for the Northern New England School of Banking in October of 2019. She is active in her community and is currently serving as a board member of the Eastern Maine Medical Center Auxiliary and holds the position of Treasurer for the organization.

A native of Hermon, Rebecca now resides in Carmel with her husband Eric, daughter Gabrielle, and son Griffin.
