

Sam Clockedile Promoted to Assistant Vice President at Katahdin Trust

HOULTON, Maine (December 22, 2020) – Katahdin Trust, a community bank founded in 1918 serving northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions, has announced the promotion of Sam Clockedile to Assistant Vice President, Marketing Officer. In his new role, Sam will continue to be responsible for the implementation of marketing campaigns, promotions, and community relations efforts for all sixteen locations of Katahdin Trust.

“With Sam’s ten years of bank marketing experience at Katahdin Trust, he delivers a wealth of industry knowledge,” said Krista K. Putnam, Senior Vice President, Marketing of Katahdin Trust. “This promotion recognizes the vital role he plays in positioning our brand of community banking. I look forward to Sam’s continued marketing efforts and his contributions to the growth and success of our Company.”

Based at the Bank’s Operations Center in Houlton, Sam has held various positions of increasing responsibility within the Marketing Department since joining Katahdin Trust in 2010. These positions include Marketing Coordinator, Marketing & Advertising Specialist, and most recently, Marketing Officer. In May 2018, Sam obtained his Certified Financial Marketing Professional (CFMP) certification.

A native of Mars Hill, Sam graduated from the University of Maine Presque Isle where he attained his B.S. in Business Administration and Management. In addition to his CFMP certification, he has completed the Young Professionals Institute, Northern New England School of Banking, and the American Bankers Association’s Bank Marketing School. Sam has also earned his Supervisor Certificate, Bank Marketing and General Banking Diplomas from the Northern New England Center for Financial Training. He resides in Mars Hill with his wife, Abby, son, Jayce, and daughter, Vera.
