

Katahdin Trust Employees Raise $2,000 for Ronald McDonald House

HOULTON, Maine (January 12, 2021) – Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maine (RMHC Maine) was the recipient of funds raised during 2020 by employees of Katahdin Trust, a local community bank.

“Every Friday, Katahdin Trust employees from our 16 northern Maine, greater Bangor and Portland area branches and Operations Center can participate in our Casual Because We Care program,” explains Natasha McCarthy, Vice President, Human Resources Director. “Our employees were very pleased to contribute to Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maine because they make such a positive impact on local families.”

Katahdin Trust employees can dress casually every Friday in support of various non-profit organizations throughout Maine. Each employee that participates in Casual Because We Care donates a minimum of $1 in exchange for the privilege to dress casually and wear jeans.

“We are filled with gratitude by the thoughtfulness of the employees of Katahdin Trust for choosing RMHC of Maine to receive this generous gift,” said Alicia Milne, Development Director of RMHC Maine. “With the impact of COVID-19 still very much a part of our day to day, we appreciate every dollar raised to support our programs in Bangor and Portland that provide a safe, comfortable, and compassionate home away from home for families who must travel for their child’s medical care. We are grateful for this gift and hope to bring even more hope to the lives of families across Maine.”

Pictured here from left to right are John Frohock, Clarissa Crandall, Diane Hewett, and Eunice McAfee. This photo was taken in 2019 while employees from Katahdin Trust’s Bangor area branches prepared an Italian meal for guests of the Ronald McDonald House in Bangor, Maine.

About Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maine

Since 1983, RMHC Maine has been a place of comfort, care, compassion, and hope for thousands of families on the medical journey of their child’s illness. At the Ronald McDonald Houses located in Bangor and Portland, families find a welcoming smile from a friendly volunteer, a home-cooked meal to enjoy after a long day at the hospital, a good night’s sleep in a caring environment, and they receive the emotional support needed to endure a most difficult time. The cost of a family’s one-night stay at the House is $75, however families are asked to contribute only $10 per night towards their stay. No family is turned away due to inability to pay, ever. More information is available at www.rmhcmaine.org.

About Katahdin Trust

Katahdin Trust, founded in 1918, is a community bank based in Houlton, Maine that offers financial services to individuals and businesses from sixteen full-service branches in northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions with a suite of digital banking solutions. The Bank has nearly 180 employees and, in 2020, was named one of the Best Places to Work in Maine for the third year in a row. Katahdin Bankshares Corp., parent company of Katahdin Trust Company, common stock is quoted on the OTC Markets (OTCQX) under the symbol KTHN and was named to the 2020 OTCQX Best 50, a ranking of top performing companies traded on the OTCQX Best Market. Learn more about the Bank at www.katahdintrust.com and follow Katahdin Trust on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and Instagram.