HOULTON, Maine (July 26, 2021) – Katahdin Trust is pleased to announce the appointment of Annette Beaton to Vice President, Community Banking Officer. She joined Katahdin in 1987 and has served in various positions, including teller, loan clerk, branch manager, and retail services officer.

“Annette has been a valued employee of Katahdin since we opened our Houlton branch in 1987,” said Jon Prescott, President & CEO. “As she transitions into a different position at Katahdin, I’d like to extend my congratulations and thank her for her leadership and oversight of the Houlton branch over the past eighteen years. I look forward to her continued success in her new role.”

A Houlton native with 34 years of banking experience, Annette will continue to serve as a retail lender and provide her excellent customer service.
