

Katahdin Trust Promotes Pamela Ward to Vice President

HOULTON, Maine (August 31, 2022) – Katahdin Trust, a community bank serving northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions, is pleased to announce the promotion of Pamela Ward to Vice President, Credit Control.

Pam began her career in banking more than 42 years ago. She joined Katahdin Trust in 2011 as Assistant Vice President, Credit Control Officer and has played a vital role in the collection efforts of the Bank.

“Pam has been a great asset for Katahdin Trust,” said Kevin Plourde, Senior Vice President, Credit Administrator. “Her banking knowledge gained from holding various roles throughout her career, has helped her provide excellent customer service to help customers through what could be their most difficult time.”

In addition to her career at Katahdin Trust, Pam is actively involved in her community. She is a past President and current Treasurer of the Meduxnekeag Ramblers Snowmobile Club in Littleton and Treasurer of the Friends and Needles Quilt Guild in Houlton.
