

Katahdin Trust and Bank Employees Donate $14,000 to United Way

HOULTON, Maine (January 11, 2024) – Katahdin Trust has partnered with the United Way of Aroostook for their annual workplace giving campaign for several years and this year was no exception. The Bank and its employees have raised a total of $14,000. Funds raised will directly benefit those in Aroostook County who are experiencing challenges and hardships.

“Katahdin Trust and our staff are always eager to help make a difference in our communities. Whether it is by volunteering or donating to local causes,” said Krista Putnam, Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer at Katahdin Trust.

Katahdin Trust employees pledge nearly $12,200 for the 2023 giving campaign and contributed an additional $600 through their Casual Because We Care program. Employee donations were combined with the Bank’s corporate and in-kind contributions.

“We are fortunate to have partners like Katahdin Trust who are willing to support our efforts,” stated Sarah Duncan, Executive Director at United Way of Aroostook. “Katahdin Trust and its staff has not only provided us with this generous donation, but they also have dedicated time volunteering for the United Way at many of our events. We are thankful for their generosity and for helping us to achieve our goals for the coming year.”
