

Katahdin Trust Welcomes Russell Johnston, VP, Commercial Services Officer

SCARBOROUGH Maine (January 26, 2024) – Katahdin Trust, a community bank serving northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions, is pleased to announce the hiring of Russell “Russ” Johnston as Vice President, Commercial Services Officer.

Russ joined the Bank officially on December 11, 2023, and is based out of 136 US Route One in Scarborough, Katahdin Trust’s most southern of its sixteen branch locations which offers checking, savings, and loan products and services to both individuals and businesses. His responsibilities include commercial lending and developing business loan relationships throughout the greater Portland market.

The addition of Russ increases the Scarborough commercial team to eight employees, joining Aaron Cannan, Nick DiMatteo, Vicki Bessette, Karyn MacLeod, Craig Robinson, Jessica Dahms, and Sam Fitzpatrick.

“We are excited to have Russ join our Scarborough Commercial team,” said Angela Tennett Butler, Executive Vice President, Retail and Business Banking at Katahdin Trust. “Russ brings market knowledge and strong business acumen to our Bank that will benefit our customers and should help us continue to grow in the southern Maine market.”

A Standish native, Russ resides in Scarborough with his wife Amy and daughter Greta. Russ is a lifelong soccer fan and spends his time coaching and officiating games throughout New England while serving on the board of directors for the Scarborough Soccer Club.
