

Katahdin Trust’s Craig Robinson Promoted to Vice President, Commercial Services Officer

SCARBOROUGH, MAINE (August 14, 2024) – Katahdin Trust Company, a community bank serving northern Maine and the greater Bangor and Portland regions, is pleased to announce the promotion of Craig Robinson to Vice President, Commercial Services Officer.

Craig is based at the bank’s Scarborough branch location. He is responsible for developing and servicing a variety of business and individual loans while assisting with the growth of the bank. Craig has been with Katahdin Trust for three years.

“We could not be more pleased to announce Craig’s promotion,” said Angela Tennett Butler, Executive Vice President Chief Banking Officer. “Craig is always eager to do whatever it takes to help his customers achieve their financial goals.”

Craig graduated from Bentley University in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in finance and has more than ten years of banking experience. He is an active member of the community, serving on the Town of Scarborough’s Transportation Committee and Maine Golf’s Scholarship Committee.
